increases recommended by the Senior Surgeon and Sanitary Commissioner to be granted to the salaries of the servants attached to the Branch Dispensary near the market.

Resolution.—The Board observed that this subject was already discussed at the last meeting and the expenditure was not sanctioned owing to the crippled state of Municipal finances. The Board however as a special case sanctioned the small increase of pay, viz., Rs. 5 proposed to the servants in the Dispensary as recommended by the Senior Surgeon and Sanitary Commissioner and the necessary application be made to Government for sanction.

XII. Consideration of the best means of securing a sufficient supply of water for the use of the Towns people, i. e., adopting precautionary measures against the threatening drought.

Resolution.—Mr. Scaldwell stated that there might be no occasions for consideration of this proposal should we have rains in the month of December next as is usual and till then the consideration of this matter might be deferred.

Resolution.—Carried nem-con.

Before the close of the meeting and on the proposal of the Vice-President, the Board unanimously resolved that a vote of thanks be conveyed to Mr. K. P. Puttanna Chetti for his very good and appreciable services rendered to this Municipality as Vice-President even though for a short time.
